

WALK A MILE OR TWO FOUR

BILL BEDFORD

is one of South Australia's most noted balladeer singers with strong influences from Slim Dusty to Elvis and Roy Orbison.

He was inducted into South Australia's Country Hall of Fame in 2003 and spent many years working in the very popular "Bill Bedford's Country Roundup Band".

He has performed across the country from Oodnadatta to Charleville and now performs with Mary Jaench alongside his wife, Colleen, who handles the sound system.

THE HOFFMANS

Husband and wife team Heather and David have been playing music for as long as they can remember.

The Duo travel extensively in Australia and internationally having completed tours of the United Kingdom and are a regular cruise act, doing songs from many genres including Country, Rock & Roll, 50's to 90's, Frank Sinatra and Queen.

DENNIS BRUCE

is an Award winning singer/songwriter who came to Australia in the 60's. Soon after, he and 2 mates formed the "John Gordon Trio" and appeared on Graham Kennedy's "In Melbourne Tonight" & Mary Hardy's "Penthouse Club". The Trio toured with The Everly Brothers, Shelley Berman, Tiny Tim and John Farnham. After moving to rural Victoria in the 90's, he quickly became involved in the country music scene and appeared at noteworthy festivals such as Tamworth and Mildura.
